

Annual Christine Cameron Research & Evidence-Based Practice Symposium

Hallmark Health System
Lawrence Memorial Hospital
April 17, 2009

PROGRAM

8:15am-8:45am:	Registration and Continental Breakfast
8:45 am-9:00am	Welcome, Barbara Wallace
9:00am-10:00am:	Keynote Speaker, Marianne Chulay Bringing Research and EBP to Patient Care in the Hospital and in the Community: The Big Picture
10:00am-10:45am	Kathleen DeLeskey Changing Practice to Reflect Best Practices Models- The Management of Post-Operative Nausea and Vomiting: Every Patient's Nightmare
10:45am-11am:	Break
11am-11:45am:	Donna Begin & Judy Moffitt Seeing a Patient Need and Creatively Intervening: The Music Study
11:45am-12:15pm	Nancy Bittner Using research to address practice questions that impact patient care: Reports of Missed Care by Nurses and Nursing Assistants and Implications for Nursing Practice and Appropriate Delegation
12:15pm-1:00pm:	Lunch
1:00pm-2:00pm:	Joy Gaviola When is Dementia really Delirium? An Interdisciplinary Best Practices Approach to the Diagnosis, Treatment and Early Intervention of Delirium in the Hospital and in the Community Setting
2:00pm-2:45pm	Deb Cronin-Waelde The Bone & Joint Program: Nurses using research and best practices to create patient centered services and programs.
2:45pm-3:00pm:	Break
3:00pm-3:30pm	Ken Peterson Family -Centered Care: Using social organization theory and nursing practice inquiry to research what it really means and how it is evidenced in practice
3:30pm-4:00pm:	Paula Rock & Christine Kowal Lateral Violence-Gathering the data and making a difference.
4:00pm-4:15pm:	Conclusion & Evaluations